Leadership at Haileybury Astana

When you come to apply to university, good grades, although essential are not the only thing admissions teams are looking for when they offer you a place. You need to show you have a keen interest in your subject but also in things outside the classroom. This booklet is full of ideas for extra activities in your subject area that demonstrate this which also allow you to show your commitment to being part of the wider school and global community.

There are leadership programmes, ambassadorial roles, CAS experiences and free university courses that you can enrol on to further your knowledge and understanding; however, there is also so much more you can do, and this is where this booklet will help.

The Haileybury Advanced Diploma shows you are just the kind of person top universities are looking for! Almost all of you should be able to get the Pass for The Haileybury Advanced Diploma and those heading for very top universities should be going for the Merit and Distinction. Year 10 and 11 pupils can start doing this work early! Universities value pupils who have done leadership awards and extra activities and have proved they have a lot to contribute.

Remember we are all here to help you, and if you are ever not sure what to do, please talk with Mr Rowe who would be more than happy to offer you advice. I am also very happy to chat with you.

You have an exciting journey ahead of you at Haileybury Astana and we are here to help you all the way.

With very best wishes,

Mark Smith

Leadership Opportunities

Leadership

Royal chartered institute of management: Award In Team Leading (year 12 and year 13)

The Team Leading qualification is an Ofqual regulated professional qualification, which results in external certification. The programme consists of three modules:

1. The Team Leader: This module aims to help pupils to understand the role of the team leader. By the end of the module pupils should be able to:
  - Explain the roles and responsibilities of the team leader.
  - Construct a personal development.
2. Communication: By the end of the module pupils should be able to:
  - Communicate instructions and plans.
  - Establish and maintain relationships.
3. Monitoring Work Plans and Providing Feedback: This module aims to help pupils to understand the elements of a work plan, how to monitor and evaluate individual and team progress and how to provide feedback to team members. It also looks at the role of the team leader in coaching team members to improve performance. By the end of the module pupils should be able to:
  - Construct and monitor a work plan and provide feedback to team members.

Assessment: 1700 word assignment.

Royal Chartered Institute Of Management: Key Skills For Success (Years 10-13)

Key Skills for Success consists of three independent modules. The programme consists of 5 - 6 hours of 'teaching and learning' experiences per module and is designed to promote the development of the character qualities and leadership skills identified as essential for pupils to make the transition to further education and/or employment. Each module culminates in a final activity that will help you succeed at school. The three modules are as follows:

1. My Personal Skills Profile - Pupils write a personal statement.
2. Communication - Pupils prepare a video response to the interview question 'So, tell me about yourself?'
3. Teamwork - Pupils examine the recruitment and interview process.

Sports Leadership Award

A great chance to work with others to improve their sporting ability and demonstrate your leadership skills. These skills are important and useful for all areas of life. This is currently only available to IGCSE PE students and IB SEHS students. More information on www.sportsleaders.org.

See Mr Williams

Language Leader

The Language Leader Award teaches young people aged 13 and over how to lead others through basic language activities by working to develop their communication, organisation and motivational skills. The award takes approximately 30 hours to complete and can supplement language learning by engaging learner and giving them an additional award.

See Ms Jumagaliyeva

Music Scholars' Award

The 'Music Scholars' Award' will be an award that children can apply for and undertake at Haileybury. It will involve a number of components, including performing, recording, composing, arranging and arts organisation. It also has the potential to develop in the way that interests the individual pupil. In today's music world, there is a great need for musicians to be not only proficient on their instrument, but proficient in lots of different aspects of the music business. The 'Music Scholars' Award' will aim to meet these aspects and will be a holistic programme designed for children to be equipped as a musician for their time after school, whether they choose to go on and study music or not. Is studying Music valuable? This is what the University of Oxford has to say: 'Whilst music may not have such a clearly-defined career pathway as some other degrees, the varied nature of the course enables students to develop highly-desirable skills in areas such as self-management, teamwork, problem-solving, and communication; all of which makes them an attractive prospective for potential employers. Rather than limiting your career prospects, a music degree opens doors to a wide range of careers both within and outside the arts.' (<https://www.music.ox.ac.uk/apply/undergraduate/why-study-music/>).

See Ms Crossing or Mr Clarke

International Award (Year 10)

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award is the world's leading youth achievement award, bringing together practical experiences and life skills to equip young people for life. Achieving an Award will give you skills, confidence and a view on life that everyone is looking for, from employers to colleges and universities. You will demonstrate independence by being self-sufficient for a weekend; resilience by committing to learning a skill; and citizenship by giving service to others. If you are looking to make a difference to other people's lives and your community, be fitter and healthier, make new friends and have memories to last you a lifetime then this is definitely the award for you.

Mrs Williams or Mr Palmer

School Magazine

Do you want to be a journalist? An editor? Or do you want to share your opinions with your peers? If this is true of you then the school magazine could be the opportunity you are looking for. The magazine is published 3 times a year and you will play an integral part in the writing, editing and designing of the three editions of the magazine.

See Mr Rowe

Youth mentoring certificate

This is for supporting younger pupils in the school over a sustained period of time. There is a level 2 Certificate for KS4 and a level 3 one for IB pupils. It could mean helping younger pupils with Kazakh, Maths Passports, CCAs, reading in English etc.

See Mrs Knight, Head of Junior School, if you want to get involved

Communication Ambassador: School Magazine

The school magazine is published 3 times a year. You can get your best articles printed in an Astana wide local magazine.

Learn about the importance of words, how they can influence people and how this can be relevant in almost all disciplines from science to arts, business to law and many more.

See Mr Rowe or Kamilya Khassenova our PR officer

Eco Ambassador

Working with the Green Flag Award and this team to promote ideas within the school and ensuring we are fulfilling Kazakhstan's commitment to renewable energy.

See Mrs Rowe

Universities Ambassador

You will be working with staff to promote university visits and support at university fairs. Ensuring you are aware of events with local agents involving universities and that these are publicised, so pupils know about their options and who to visit. Keep an up to date library of university prospectuses in the CAS/Careers office for other pupils to see.

See Mr Rowe

In addition to the above, you may also be interested in the following:

School Council

Have you ever wanted to change the school menu? Discuss the school CCA programme? Discuss the length of break? Lunch? Just simply wanted to have your voice and opinion heard? Then the School Council could be for you. The School Council gives you a chance to lead on student voice in the school and represent the student body on issues that matter to you.

See Mrs Holmes

Heads Of House

Heads of House are selected by Housemasters to support them in the leadership of the House. You will be expected to help lead assemblies, support with the award of certificates and play a leading role in making sure Housemasters are fully aware of all the achievements of pupils in their House, both within and outside school. You need to be proactive, set a strong example and attend regular meetings with your Housemaster.

Event management – Haileybury Day and World Book Day

A chance to develop your organisational skills which are relevant to a wide range of future university and career paths. Haileybury Day involves enterprise, running your own stall to raise money for good causes, trading experience, learning how to persuade and influence people – from sponsors to the people you are selling to! It can also involve experience of ‘social enterprise’ where you set something up to raise money for charity.

See Mrs Holmes

World Book Day involves helping organise a book sale with books you persuade people to donate, which are then sold on to raise money to buy new books for the local orphanage.

See Mrs Williams

Young Enterprise

The Young Enterprise CCA at Haileybury Astana is run by Key Stage 5 students, giving them an opportunity to embrace a CAS experience which is both creative and aims to provide a service to the community. Students involved will be expected to identify a good or service, which they can sell during Haileybury Day, with all proceeds going to charity. This is a great opportunity for students that are interested in running their own business or those that might choose to study business at university.

See Mrs Johnston-Walker

Pupil mentoring

Key Stage 5 students will be given the opportunity to mentor pupils in Key Stage 4, in a subject of their choosing. This will involve the mentor and mentee meeting on a weekly basis so that support can be given to those students that may benefit from an additional perspective to their usual class teacher. This is a great opportunity for Key Stage 5 students to consolidate their own understanding of a subject and inspire others.
